

Value Chain Financing: Opportunities in SME Banking

May 22-23, 2023
9:30 am-1:30 pm

Course Learnings

Participants will be able to learn value chain financing, working capital need assessment, importance of segmentation and prioritization of suppliers/distributors for on-boarding, technology based new business models etc.

Trainer

Mr. Yasir Butt
Product Head-BOP

Targeted Audience
Branch Level-officers, CAD & Risk Managers

Day- 1

Contents

Day- 2

Module -1

- Role of Value Chain Financing in securing bank loan
- Factoring and reverse factoring in Value Chain Finance
- Role of Anchor Company in VCF
- How we can eliminate Security requirement with the help of VCF
- Value Chain Models in different countries & identification of weak and healthy value chains

Module -2

- What is working capital and how it is measures
 - WC Ratio
 - Cash Conversion Cycle
 - Concept Explanations: Day-payable Outstanding (DPO), Day-sale Outstanding (DSO), and Day-inventory Outstanding DIO & its use in SCF
- What is Supply Chain Financing and what are the key benefits
- SCF products Schemes/flows, Product mapping in supply chain
- International Market Trends, future challenges & opportunities

Module -3

- Building blocks of VCF for FIs
- Market Sizing and Business Case
- Operating Model and Technology
- SME Segmentation and Selection
- Case Studies & practical demonstrations

Module -4

- Outsource or Do-it-yourself (DIY) – Pros and Cons
- Technology innovations & solutions options in the market
- Key considerations selecting an VCF technology partner
- Typical Request for Proposal (RFP) Process for VCF technology partner selection
- Implications for Value chain finance
- Technologies-based new business models

Online Via Zoom

Course Fee (2-day)
Rs. 5,000 PST/head/Program

For Registration

Mr. Asad Jan (051-9269850-59)
asad.jan@sbp.org.pk

Mr. Mubashar Tayyab
mubashar.tayyab@sbp.org.pk