

GREEN FINANCING & CLIMATE SMART AGRICULTURE

FEE: RS. 12,000/-
(Excluding Sales tax)

MARCH 26, 2026 | 09:00 AM TO 01:30 PM | ONLINE TRAINING

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the evolution and significance of sustainable development globally and in Pakistan.
- Explain the concept of Green Banking and its adoption locally and internationally.
- Recognize the role, benefits, and potential of Green Business Facilitation.
- Identify key investment sectors for promoting green initiatives in Pakistan.
- Understand Climate Smart Agriculture Financing and learn best practices.

COURSE CONTENTS

- History of Sustainable Development
 - Evolution of sustainable development concepts
 - Global initiatives and milestones
- Evolution of Green Banking Concept
 - Definition and principles of Green Banking
 - International trends and adoption in Pakistan
- Green Business Facilitation
 - Concept, need, and potential
 - Benefits for businesses, banks, and the environment
- Key Investment Sectors in Pakistan
 - Renewable energy and energy-efficient technologies
 - Sustainable infrastructure
 - Other priority sectors
- Climate Smart Agriculture Financing
 - Concept and objective
 - Implementation strategies
 - Best practices and case studies
- Practical Insights & Discussion
 - Challenges and opportunities in Green Banking
 - Policy support and regulatory framework
 - Interactive application of best practices

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Product Development Manager
- Area Managers
- Relationship Managers
- Branch Managers
- Agriculture Finance Officers
- Business Development Department
- Agriculture Department
- Credit Department
- SME & Commercial Department
- Business Development Officers

FACILITATOR PROFILE

Dr. Syed Asim Ali Bukhari holds a PhD in Green Banking – Governance and Risk Management from USM, Penang, Malaysia, and has obtained a Professional Certification in Green and Sustainable Finance from the Chartered Banker Institute, UK. He is currently working as SVP / Unit Head – ESG at The Bank of Punjab. He is an expert in Green Banking, ESG, Green & Sustainable Financing, Environmental & Social Risk Management (ESRM) Framework, UN-SDGs, IFRS S1 & S2, and Climate Smart Agriculture. His academic expertise is complemented by over 20 years of diverse professional experience. He has served in a number of reputable banks in Pakistan, including Bank AL Habib Limited, UBL, and Soneri Bank Limited. He has participated as a guest speaker and panelist on various platforms. He has also conducted training & awareness sessions in collaboration with a number of organizations, including NIBAF and IBP. Dr. Bukhari has authored more than 100 articles in international journals and local English newspapers, magazines, and blogs on diverse areas of ESG & Green Management, especially Green Banking Adoption. He has attended several international seminars, conferences, and courses in the area of Green & Sustainable Management.

Mr. Adnan Haider

adnan.haider@nibaf.org.pk  021-35277505